OLD ENGLAND:

The CONSTITUTIONAL JOURNAL.

By JEFFREY BROADBOTTOM, of Covent-Garden, Esq;

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1745. [N°. 137.]

AS we have devoted our Paper, at preſent, entirely to the Service of the preſent Eſtabliſhment, we cannot refuſe inſerting whatever comes to our Hands, provided (as the following Letter is) it is wrote with Spirit, Language, and Honeſty. As to the Religious Principles of the Rationaliſts, or whether they have any or not, in the common Acceptance of the Word, Religion, we neither know nor care about them, any more than about thoſe of other Sects under other Denominations. If they ſerve KING GEORGE in his Way, they may ſerve GOD ALMIGHTY in their own; and welcome for me. J. B.

An ADDRESS to, and an APOLOGY for, all thoſe who are, or would willingly be eſteemed RATIONALISTS.

Dictum eſt ab eruditiſſimis Viris, niſi ſapientem, liberum eſſe neminem. Quid eſt enim Libertus? Poteſtas vivendi ut velis: Quis igitur vivit, ut vult, niſi, qui recta ſequitur, qui gaudet officio, cui vivendi via conſiderata, atque proviſa eſt? Qui Legibus quidem non propter metum paret, ſed eas ſequitur, atque colet, quia id ſalutare maxime eſſe judicat. Cic.

GENTLEMEN,

AS your Name, Principles, and Number, make ſo very conſiderable a Figure, and are daily increaſing in this Nation, 'tis with ſecret Wonder and Aſtoniſhment, I obſerve, that, among all the Addreſſes and Aſſociations that have been made upon this great Occaſion, none to have been entered into or even propoſed by your illuſtrious Body: And eſpecially, as I think it concerns you, more than all other Denominations of Men, to be alarm'd at the bold and daring Attempt that is now making towards ſubverting and utterly extinguiſhing all that, in this Life, you hold moſt dear and valuable. And as the Voices, Hands, and Hearts of all religious Sects and Denominations (ſave one) have, on this Occaſion, been unanimous in demonſtrating their Zeal for, and Readineſs to ſupport our preſent Eſtabliſhment, both Civil and Religious, it would, at this Time of imminent Danger, be the greateſt Impeachment of your Loyalty to your King, Love and Fidelity to your Country, to look ſupinely on, and not endeavour, in your Turn, to awaken the ſlumbering Zeal of your Party.

Rather than ſuch an indelible Stain ſhould be handed down with your Names to Poſterity: I, who am ambitious to be ranked with your Number, boldly ſnatch the Pen, and dare run the Riſque to prove myſelf either vain or ſilly, in order to prevent the ſhameful Imputation. What others of you may think I know not; but, for my Part, will aſſure you, that I had infinitely rather be remember'd by Poſterity, as a weak and paltry Apologiſt, than as one who wanted a ſincere Love and Affection for his Country. This animating Zeal for the Honour and Welfare of my Country, the nobleſt Paſſion that ever warm'd an human Breaſt, was the Reaſon of my taking up the Pen; and the Conſciouſneſs of having diſcharg'd my Duty, ſhall be my Comfort and Protection when I lay it down.

Methinks, I hear ſome of us ſay—We are no Corporate Body; we have no Charter or Common Seal; and therefore cannot properly have any general Repreſentative.——I grant it: But have you not what is much more ſtrong and extenſive? Have you not the Voice of Nature and impartial Reaſon as the Foundation of your Religion, and the common Good and Happineſs of human Nature as the Bands of your Society? This univerſal Harmony and Conſent in Principles and Opinions, thus founded, is a nobler and more durable Corporation, than the periſhing Materials of Parchment and Wax, can make or conſtitute.

It has been ſaid too, that as we pay no Regard to, nor hold there is any Thing good or meritorious in the Manner of any religious Worſhip only, that therefore we need not be concerned what particular Form of Religion is introduced, ſince we are perſwaded that the Eſſence and Foundation of ours is eſtabliſh'd on ſuch a permanent Baſis, as to be out of the Power of any earthly Tyrant to hurt or deſtroy. I grant too, that the Eſſence of our Religion is ſacred and inviolable, and muſt laſt as long as the Nature of Things continue to be what they are. But as we have an ardent Deſire, that our Religion ſhould be tranſmitted uncorrupted to our Poſterity, the Introduction of new Forms and Ceremonies into it ought to alarm us above all other Conſiderations; for know, the Hiſtories of all Nations teſtify, that nothing, ſince the Origin of Things, has had a more fatal and pernicious Influence on the Minds of Men than the great Pomp and Shew made Uſe of in religious Ceremonies; which, by being ſo frequently and glaringly exhibited before the Eyes of the Ignorant, ſerved to inflame their Paſſions, to corrupt and deprave their Underſtandings: And thoſe ſimple Modes, which originally were innocently made Uſe of, as a Means to promote Decency and Order, have by the ſubtle Arts and venal Views of a Prieſthood, been taught as the only End of the Salvation of Man. And as often as the poor, credulous, and unthinking Multitude have been deluded and cheated out of the Practice of true Religion and Virtue; ſo often have they been baſely taught to reverence and adore the mere empty Name and Forms of it. Conſider that the Voice of Reaſon, when duly cultivated and attended to, was in all Ages and Nations the ſame; but the venal Trade of the Prieſts ruled over it with a cruel and bloody Tyranny; and as often as that divine Principle began to glow, or burn up in the Hearts of the People, ſo often did thoſe holy Deſtroyers of Senſe and Virtue, extinguiſh it in Blood.

The Principles and Opinions, imbibed in our Education, whether right or wrong, are, of all others, the moſt tenacious and inflexible; and, to the greateſt Part of Mankind, give the ſtrongeſt Tincture to the Colour and Complexion of their whole Lives: So that a Man needs only to be educated at Rome, or in England, to make him proud, tyrannical, and ſuperſtitious, or humane, mild, and charitable;—— a furious Bigot, or a free Enquirer.

Among all Religious Sects of this Age, ſo greatly enlightened by true Philoſophy, none abound with groſſer Abſurdities in Speculation; and hardly any equal, in Practice, the cruel, ſtupid, and ſuperſtitious Ceremonies of the Church of Rome. And as their Civil Power, on ſome Occaſions, allows of an Inquiſition to enſlave and torture the Body, their Religious Principles are a perpetual Inquiſition, and worſt of all Slaveries to the Mind. There we ſee the Word of God and the Voice of Nature proſtituted to the moſt wicked and infamous Purpoſes, in perverting the Dictates of uncorrupted and impartial Reaſon out of its due Courſe by forged and legendary Tales, in denying to Mankind that divine and original Privilege of their Nature, to chuſe the Method of their own Salvation, and obliging them to conform to that which is an Affront to their Nature, unworthy of God, and contrary to the Reaſon of Things; in making Laws that are as contradictory to Senſe and Reaſon, as inconſiſtent with the general Good and Happineſs of human Society: And, in general, by their whole Scheme of Government, endeavouring to corrupt and deprave thoſe diſtinguiſhing Characteriſtics of Man, Reaſon and Liberty of Conſcience; and erecting in their Stead, implicit Faith, arbitrary Laws, and every other ſlaviſh Principle, as ſerve to debaſe the fair Image of the Almighty to a Level with the brute Creation.

The ſure Confidence we have, in the juſt, equitable, and moral Government of God, bids us hope the Salvation and Happineſs of the ignorant and credulous; whoſe Errors may be imputed to the Influence of Education, Authority of Teachers, or popular Opinion. But the ſame Senſe we have of theſe divine Attributes, bid us fear, that thoſe of an enlightened Underſtanding, and who know the pernicious and evil Tendency of their Doctrine, may hope in vain for that Charity and Mercy at the awful Throne of infinite Wiſdom, which they themſelves denied to human Nature in general. If we ourſelves are ſenſibly touched with the bare Reflection on the dreadful Judgment that awaits ſuch Sinners, O God! what Horror and Deſpair muſt ſeize the Breaſt of that unhappy Mortal, who is once conſcious that he is the Man that has knowingly propagated Error, and endeavour'd to ſink and deprave the divine Light of Reaſon.

After a long Age of Ignorance, Liberty, the Source of every noble Principle, begun to rear her Head in different Parts of Europe; but never could meet with the Peace and Tranquility ſhe ſought, 'till ſhe lighted on this fair Iſland. Hither, tho' late, her good Genius directed her, and in that great Inſtance ſhew'd, that as we were then the leaſt of all others corrupted in Principle, that in this Nation was the ſecureſt Situation for erecting her Empire; an eaſy Communication being cut off from thoſe of others who remained in Ignorance and Superſtition. In this Nation ſhe was courted, indulged, and admired by our Anceſtors! in this Nation ſhe yet lives, like a common Mother, diffuſing Bleſſings; and affording Comfort and Protection to all who take Sanctuary under her Banner.

And are we, after the Experience of her moſt invaluable Bleſſings, dwindled to that degenerate Race, ſo unbecoming our Sires, as to behold her Throne craſed, her Temples ranſack'd, and all her fair Fame deſtroy'd, by the rapacious Hands of arbitrary Power, fat-headed Prieſts, and religious Enthuſiaſts? Shall we tamely give up our holy Religion, a Religion that is founded on the unalterable Reaſon and Harmony of Things; and promoted and inculcated by the moſt humane and rational Means, to that which is founded in Error, nurſed by Ignorance and Superſtition, and propagated by the Sword? Shall we, who have enjoy'd the uninterrupted Poſſeſſion, and free Exercise of ſolid and ſubſtantial Virtue and Religion, and been governed by the moſt wiſe, mild, and equitable Laws, ſhamefully reſign thoſe noble Privileges into the Hands of a cruel and deteſtable Race, who propagate heathen Principle with more than heathen Cruelty?

Can we bear to reflect that our Children, Relations, Friends, and lateſt Poſterity, muſt be goaded and and dragg'd to the Belief and Practice of that Religion which we deteſt and abhor, and what has been the Toil of our Anceſtors to abrogate and extinguiſh? Can we, who hold all Engagements and Promiſes, as well as Oaths, ſhould be punctually and religiouſly obſerv'd, put any Truſt or Confidence in a People who ſeldom enter into either but to entrap and deceive, and diſpenſe with the moſt ſolemn Obligations on any trivial Occaſion? Can we depend on the Aſſurances of thoſe who have all the Glare of Reaſon and Truth before their Eyes, and yet live in Contradiction to all its Dictates and Attributes? Can we aſſociate or commune with thoſe whoſe Religion is a pompous Farce, and Government a continued Scene of Tyranny.

No:——Sooner than ſubmit to relinquiſh the Bleſſings of Life, let us part with Life itſelf. No:—Let us unite and aſſociate with our Swords in our Hands; and let the Zeal for our Religion and Liberty inſpire our Breaſts: And if we fall in our noble Cauſe, let the good and generous of Poſterity remember us as People, who, rather than live to be Slaves, choſe to die diſtinguiſhed as Engliſhmen, Chriſtians, but more eſpecially as reaſonable Creatures.

A RATIONALIST.

N. B. The Letter ſigned Angligenus ſhall be inſerted in our next

LONDON.

From the LONDON GAZETTE.

Stirling, Nov. 18. This Town has raiſed 400 Men, and put them under the Command of General Blakeney, who armed and reviewed them laſt Saturday.

Edinburgh, Nov. 19. Upon the Application of Provoſt Cochran, and the Magiſtrates of Glaſgow, for 1000 Arms, they are immediately to be ſent thither; and the Earl of Hume, with two Troops of Dragoons, is going to Glaſgow, in order to diſcipline, and put in Order the Men which the City have in Readineſs. The Accounts we had of Colonel Campbell defeating and diſperſing a Body of the Rebels of about 130, who came into Cowel in Argyleſhire, in order to raiſe Men for the Rebel Army, is confirmed; and that the Deputy Lieutenants in that Shire, in purſuance of his Majeſty's Orders, are endeavouring, with the utmoſt Diligence, to raiſe a conſiderable Number of Men for the Service of the Government. The Inhabitants of this City, who before the Rebels came here had ſubſcribed Sums of Money for raiſing and maintaining 1000 Men for the Support of his Majeſty's Government, and had obtain'd his Royal Approbation, are now putting the ſame in Execution, under the Direction of the commanding Officer in Scotland.

Whitehall, November 20. Letters from Penrith, dated the 16th, bring a Confirmation of the Surrender of Carliſle the Day before, to the Rebels, and give the following Account of the Occaſion of it; viz. That for ſeven Days before, neither the Officers nor common Men of the Garriſon had had ſcarce an Hour's Reſt, being perpetually alarmed by the Rebels; and that many of them were ſo ſick, thro' their great Fatigue, that being out of all hopes of a ſpeedy Relief, they abſolutely refuſed to hold out any longer, and Multitudes went off every Hour over the Walls, ſome of which fell into the Hands of the Rebels, 'till the Officers of many Companies were at laſt left with not above three or four Men; ſo that the Mayor and Corporation determined to hang out the White Flag (tho' contrary to the Opinion of Col. Durand) and made the beſt Terms they could get for themſelves; and that the Colonel was hereupon obliged to abandon the Caſtle, not having above 70 Invalids to defend it, and moſt of them unfit for Service; and the Rebels threatning, in caſe of Refuſal, to deſtroy the whole Town by Fire and Sword.

Whitehall, Nov. 25. Advices from Penrith of the 20th at Night mention, that the Rebels, to the Amount of 3000, had been entering that Place from Four in the Afternoon to Nine, and that ſeveral Thouſands more were expected there the next Day; that according to all Appearance their Intention was to march Southwards, and that a Party of them, conſiſting of 120 Men, had gone that Afternoon to Lowther-Hall, Lord Lonſdale's Seat.

Letters of the 21ſt from the ſame Place ſay, the Rebels had been coming in there all that Day, that thoſe which had arrived the Day before were all gone the Lancaſhire Road; that Lord George Murray, Lord Elcho, Lord Nairn, Glenbucket, the Perſon ſtiling himſelf the Duke of Perth, were arrived at Penrith, and the Pretender's Son was expected every Minute.

Letters from Kendall of the 21ſt brings Advice, that about 120 Horſe, belonging to the Rebels, were come into that Town, and that Orders had been given for preparing Quarters for 2000 Foot, which were to be there that Evening, under the Command of Lord George Murray. Letters of the 22d from the ſame Place ſay, that the Rebels were arrived there, and that they gave out that they propoſed to be at Lancaſter upon the 23d.

Whitehall, Nov. 25. By Advices of the 22d from Penrith, the Highland Army which marched in there on the 21ſt, was to halt that Day. The Pretender's Son, with his Houſhold, came in at the Head of a Regiment of Foot, about Three that Afternoon; that by the beſt Reckoning that could be made at Emont and Fallowfield Bridge, the whole of their Army did not exceed 7000 Men; that the Body of regular Horſe is very inconſiderable. There are not as yet above 30 Huſſars, beſides thoſe that marched with the Van Guard Yeſterday to Kendal; that Carliſle was left with only about 100; that they talked of great Numbers who were to join them from Scotland; that old Glenbucket was gone forward with Lord Elcho; that their whole Train of Artillery did not amount to above 16 ſmall Field-Piece; that their Baggage-Waggons, which were about 20 in Number, were very ſlenderly guarded, ſome of them being drawn by three, and others by two Horſes, and that it was expected that the whole Body would march from Penrith upon the 24th.

Whitehall, Nov. 26. By Advices from Liverpool of the 24th, there is an Account, that nine Men belonging to the Army of the Rebels, came into Burton about One o'Clock in the Afternoon of the 23d, and demanded Quarters for 100 Horſe and 700 Foot. Letters from Lancaſter of the 24th take Notice, that the Van of the Rebel Army, conſiſting of the Numbers above, arriv'd there that Day; and that the young Pretender, with the main Body, lay at Kendall the Night before.

Whitehall, Nov. 26. There are Letters from the North, which mention, that upon the 14th Inſtant, about 40 Carts belonging to the Rebels, and loaden with Arms, Bread, Highland Plads and Waiſtcoats, were ſeized and plundered by the Country People in the County of Anandale, within ten Miles of Dumfries.

Whitehall, Nov. 26. An Expreſs juſt arrived from Marſhal Wade, dated the 23d at Newcaſtle, brings Advice, that the Army under his Command was returned thither the 22d, and was received and lodged by the Magiſtrates and Inhabitants in the Public Halls, Glaſs-houſes, Malt Houſes, and other empty Buildings; and that, upon the News of the Motions of the Rebels, it had been reſolved in a Council of War, to march the whole Army Southward, on Sunday the 24th Inſtant, in Purſuit of them.

Whitehall, Nov. 26. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to order a third Battalion of the Foot Guards, and likewiſe the Regiment of Dragoons commanded by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Cobham, to march forthwith towards Lancaſhire, in order to join the Army which is aſſembling under the Command of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland.

By Letters from Cheſter, dated on Monday laſt, we are informed, that there are very few Shops now open in that City; that the Rebels were expected at Preſton as that Evening, and that two Arches of the Bridge at Warrington being demoliſhed, they have thereby loſt the Means of having an early and certain Account of the Motions of the Highland Rebels, but that nevertheleſs they took all imaginable Pains to fortify and ſecure the City, ſo as to be able to defend itſelf till the Approach of the Army, and thereby avoid the Fate of Edinburgh and Carliſle.

Extract of a private Letter from Preſton, Nov. 24

"We are under the utmoſt Apprehenſions here, having this Moment received an Account, that the Rebels entered Lancaſter this Day, at Noon, in very ſmall Parties, ſome of 10 or 12, and were ſoon after follow'd by a Detachment of 120. The Officer who commanded theſe laſt, felt immediately upon Buſineſs, ordering the Town Accounts, and the Books at the Poſt Office to be brought him, that he might know how to levy Money. It is juſtly to be feared that we ſhall very ſoon be better acquainted with theſe Plunderers: In the mean Time it is not eaſy to expreſs how much all Ranks and Degrees of People are frighted, as having no Reaſon to hope they ſhall be better treated than their Neighbours."

Extract of a Letter from Bath.

"The Gentlemen and principal Inhabitants here, have entered into an Aſſociation and Subſcription, which already amounts to upwards of 2000 l. Mr Allen, our worthy Neighbour, has cloathed an hundred brave Fellows for his Majeſty, and are exerciſed every Day."

Extract of a Letter from Newcaſtle, Nov. 24.

"There was a Fellow taken up here laſt Night, who had brought Letters from the Duke of Perth, to ſeveral Papiſts in the County of Northumberland, whoſe Anſwers he was carrying back, with about 250 l. in Money, which he had collected among them for the Support of the Cauſe. Theſe Circumſtances render it ſufficiently evident, that this Man has it in his Power to make great Diſcoveries, and it is ſaid, he has manifeſted a Diſpoſition to make all that he can, ſo that this Accident is looked upon as a Matter of great Importance here."

Extract of a Letter from Dover, Nov. 24.

"We are in great Haſte in fitting up part of the Caſtle for Barracks, fit to receive a Regiment of Soldiers; we have about 500 French Priſoner in the Caſtle, and Four Companies of General Handaſyd's Regiment of Foot in the Town."

Extract of a Letter from Deal, Nov. 25.

"This Forenoon arrived his Majeſty's Ship Sheerneſs, Capt. Bully, and brought in the Sun, a French Privateer, which he took the 22d Inſtant, off the Dogger Bank; ſhe came from Dunkirk the 21ſt Inſtant, bound to Montroſs in Scotland, and has on board the Earl of Derwentwater, 20 Colonels, Captains, &c. being French, Scotch, and Iriſh, and Sixty others, beſides the Ship's Crew, and it is reported here, that the Pretender's younger Son is on board, but cannot ſend you the Truth of it this Poſt."

Tueſday his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, ſet out from St. James's with a large Retinue, to take upon him the Command of the Army now aſſembling in the Counties of Cheſhire and Lancaſhire.

We hear that great Numbers of the Gentlemen, that daily frequented Leatherſellers-Hall, to learn the Military Art, are gone Volunteers under his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland.

The Milford Man of War of Forty-four Guns, is foundered on the Coaſt of Scotland.

The Parham, Brooks, from Newfoundland for Biddeford, was loſt laſt Wedneſday 7 Night, near the latter Place, and the Crew, conſiſting of Fifty Perſons, were all loſt, except one Boy. And,

A Dutch Veſſel loaden with Butter, was loſt at the ſame Time and Place.

According to our Advices from Lancaſter directly, the Royal Hunters and ſome Detachment of Light-Horſe, arrived at Biſhop's Auckland, on Friday Night laſt; and two Regiments of Horſe, and one of Dragoons, from Marſhal Wade's Army, entered Durham the ſame Evening, that is, the 22d of this Month.

Letters from York ſay, that his Excellency Field Marſhal Wade propoſed to be with all his Army at Burrowbridge on Wedneſday.

They write from Doncaſter of the 26th Inſtant, that his Royal Highneſs the Duke ſupped there that Night, and propoſed to ſet out early the next Morning for Newport Pagnel.

We hear from Briſtol, that the Merchants and principal Inhabitants have actually raiſed upwards of 1000 Men for the Government; they are now ready to be incorporated into ſuch Regiments as his Majeſty ſhall think fit.

There have been ſuch Precautions taken in Lancaſhire, that, in all probability, the Rebels will be diſappointed of the Aſſiſtance they hoped for there; and as Marſhal Wade is on his March Southward, and the Army is daily forming in the Weſt, they will very ſoon find themſelves between two Fires, and equally deſtitute of Reſource or Retreat.

Wedneſday his Majeſty went to the Houſe of Peers, and gave the Royal Aſſent to the Two following Acts; videlicet;

An Act for granting an Aid to his Majeſty by a Land Tax to be raiſed in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year 1746.

An Act for continuing the Duties on Malt, Mum, Cyder and Perry, for the Service of the Year 1746.

After which the Lord Chancellor, by his Majeſty's Command, adjourn'd both Houſes to Tueſday the 10th Day of December next.

Thurſday ſailed his Majeſty Ship the Devonſhire, of 80 Guns, lately repaired at Woolwich, to join Admiral Vernon.

The Anthony, Hunting, from London for St Kitts, is taken by a Spaniſh Privateer, and carried into Bayonne.

The Ludlow Caſtle is arrived in Yarmouth Roads from Scotland, with Fifty of the Rebels, whom he got on board by hoiſting French Colours.

Thurſday a Parcel of Meaſly Pork, ſeized in one of the City Markets, was burnt in Smithfield.

Laſt Wedneſday Mr. Aſhburham, of Popping's Alley, Fleetſtreet, aged 91, was married to his Ninth Wife, a Woman about 21.

A great Parcel of Papers are ſaid to be found on board the Soliel Privateer, which were hid in different Parts of the Ship.

Thurſday, the 12th of next Month, is appointed for the Election of a Common-Cryer of this City, in the room of Mr. Elderton, deceas'd.

There is certain Intelligence from Cheſter, that the City is put into a compleat Poſture of Defence, and that they have two Regiments of Foot in the Town, viz. that of Brigadier General Bligh, of old Troops, and the new raiſed Regiment of the Earl of Cholmondley.

They write from Leverpoole, that all the Powder in that Town has been embarked on Board the Veſſels in the Harbour, as well as the moſt valuable Effects belonging to the Townſmen and Traders of that Place, to prevent their falling into the Hands of the Rebels.

On Saturday laſt as a poor Woman, who lived on Saffron-Hill, was pulling a Piece of Timber out of a Chimney to make a Fire with, the whole Stack fell in upon her, which killed her on the Spot.

On Monday Morning, between Twelve and One, died Mr. John Osborn Bookſeller in Pater noſter Row; Eminent for his Humanity, Integrity, the Inoffenſiveneſs of his Life and Manners, and for his warm and friendly Heart.

On Monday one of the Militia that was doing Duty at the Exchange on Saturday laſt, was committed to Newgate by the Right Hon. the Lord Major, for drawing his Sword upon his Captain, and threatning to kill him.

Extract of a private Letter from an Officer in Brigadier Price's Regiment of Foot in Edinburgh, Nov. 21.

"After being harraſs'd about in Flanders a great while, Orders were given on the 13th of October for us to march to Williamſtadt, and the next Morning we began to obey them, not reſting above three Hours in the Night, on the open Ground, tho' it rained moſt part of the Time. On the 18th we came to Williamſtadt, and imbarked, (not knowing but we were coming to England, 'till on board,) and after eight Days Paſſage in a tempeſtuous Sea, two Tranſports of us arrived at Holy-Iſland, leaving all the other Veſſels in a terrible Hurricane, nine Leagues from that Place. After a ſhort Stay at Berwick to refreſh ourſelves, and take Care of our Sick, which were numerous, we marched with all the Expedition the Severity of the Seaſon would admit of, for this City, where we arrived on the 14th Inſtant. We met with good Uſage on the Road, but ſeveral Houſes are deſerted by the Inhabitants, in one of which a ſmall Party of us reſted a few Hours, and the next Morning proceeded on our March, when we met 15 Men compleatly armed, ſeven of whom were on Horſeback, among which was John Iſing-bottle, a Bricklayer's Labourer, who about five Years ago, almoſt killed a Man at Hyde-Park Corner, and he gave in his Bail for his Appearance in Caſe of the Perſon's Death, but abſconded as ſoon as he had his Liberty. We were ſaluted by the Caſtle and Townſmen; the principal Officers have taken Poſſeſſion of their reſpective Poſts, and all the neceſſary Preparations are making to prevent the Return of the Rebels, in which the Inhabitants are not dilatory. Several Perſons who had aſſiſted the Rebels with Proviſions, have left their Habitations; and a few have been taken into Cuſtody, ſtrong Suſpicion of holding a Correſpondence with the Pretender's Son, and his Adherents."

Early Monday Morning ſome Sharpers took the Opportunity, while the Chairman at the Temple Gate were in a Publick Houſe, to carry off a poor Man's Chair notwithſtanding the Centry at Temple-Bar.

Monday the State-Lottery began drawing at Guildhall, when 242 Chances were drawn, the Firſt being 26,205, is on that Account intitled to 500 l. and 20,738, and 21,301, were Prizes of 100 l. each.

Tueſday Numbers 20,242, 15,099, 22,050, 45,712, 7913, 30,142, 24,558, and 36,365, were drawn Prizes of 100 l.

Wedneſday the following Numbers were drawn Pizes in the State Lottery; viz. 29,395, 1000 l. 10,790, 500 l. 574 32,377, 8133, 5992, 11,478, 8298, 47,630, 100 l. each.

Thurſday the following Numbers were drawn Prizes, viz. 17,949, 35,330, 35,466, and 21,270, of 500 l. each, and 16,183, 13,339, 8,704, 22,088, 668, 3,540, and 36,885, of 100 l.

This Day is publiſh'd,
The Sixteenth Edition of

ONANIA: Or, The Heinous Sin of Self-Pollution, and all its frightful Conſequences (in both Sexes) conſidered, with Spiritual and Phiſical Advice to thoſe who have already injured themſelves by this abominable Practice.

As alſo the SIXTH EDITION of the SUPPLEMENT to it, both of them Revived and Enlarged, and now printed together in One Volume.

And as the ſeveral Paſſages in the former Impreſſions, that have been charged with being obſcure and ambiguous, are in theſe cleared up and explained, there will be no more Alterations or Additions made to them.

Theſe Editions contain ſome further and ſurprizing Inſtances of the Miſchiefs by that filthy, ſinful Commerce with ones ſelf, which is ſo notoriouſly practiſed, as well by the Adult as Youth, Women as Men, Married as Single, to the weakning their Generative Faculties, and hindering Procreation, as their Letters of Complaint to the Author herein inſerted, ſhew.

And, amongſt others, a curious Letter from a Lady, with his Anſwer to it, concerning the Uſe and Abuſe of the Marriage Bed; together with diver Caſuiſtical and other Letters from both Sexes, of ſome ſecret unnatural Effeminacies, neceſſary to be known both by the married and ſingle of each Sex. To which is added,

A Curious PIECE tranſlated out of the Latin, from L. S SCHMEDIER, as it is inſerted in the Acta Lipſienſia; concerning the Return of the Seed into the Maſs of Blood; well worth the Peruſal of Phyſicians, Surgeons, Anatomiſts, and all others of Art and Curioſity.

As alſo Dr QUINCY's Tranſlation of Dr CARR's remarkable Anſwer to a Letter ſent by a Divine, concerning two Nuns in Rome, reported to have changed their Sex.

Likewiſe Dr. DRAKE's and ſeveral other Phyſicians Opinions of Hermaphrodites, and Women brought to a Reſemblance of them, by the Practice of Self-Pollution, as was the Caſe of a young Lady of 18, whoſe well-wrote Letter to the Author, deſcribing and lamenting her Condition, is (in order to deter others) inſerted.

A very grave and learned Divine and Phyſician having peruſed this Diſcourſe, before it went to the Preſs, returned it with his Opinion of it in theſe Words:

'This little Book ought to be read by all Sorts of People, 'of both Sexes, of what Age, Degree, Profeſſion, or Condition 'ſoever, guilty or not guilty of the Sin declaimed againſt in it.'

Is now ſold (Mr Isted, Bookſeller, at the Golden Ball, in Fleetſtreet being dead) by CHARLES CORBETT, Bookſeller, at Addiſon's Head, oppoſite St. Dunſtan's Church, Fleetſtreet, and by HENRY COOK under the Royal Exchange. Price Bound 3 s. 6 d.

The moſt wonderful cleanſing and ſtrengthning Drops for all Sorts of Gleets, and Seminal Weakneſſes and Imbecillities of the Generative Parts and Faculties, preventing Miſcarriages in Women; and to cleanſe and ſtrengthen the Reins, Kidnies and Bladder, cure weak Backs, Stranguries, Gravel, and Stoppage of the Urine, and for which it has gained ſuch Repute, that near 20000 Bottles have been ſold ſince April 1734, that they were firſt publiſh'd.

THESE incomparable Drops, which for the aboveſaid Diſorders are not to be equall'd in the whole Art of Medicine, were preſcrib'd by the late Dr. Ratcliffe, for a certain noble Lord, who for a long Time had been vex'd with an old obſtinate Gleet and Weakneſs, of which he was cured by them in a few Days, beyond all Expectation, after he had been harraſs'd with Electuaries, Boluſſes, Pills, Portions, Injections, and a hundred other Medicines, for many Months together in vain.

The Apothecary who prepared them for him according to the Doctor's Preſcription (which he has ſtill upon his File) has made Uſe of them ever ſince to Numbers of People in the very worſt of Gleets, ſeminal and genital Imbecilities and Infertilities, Pains in the Back and Reins, Diſorders of the Urine and Gravel, &c with the utmoſt Succeſs and Safety; as alſo in all Weakneſſes from Strains, as well as Venereal Relicts, exceſſive Coition, Self Pollution, ſeminal Emiſſions in Sleep, Falls, Blows, Wrenches, and the like, in both Sexes.

And as they have never once failed him, even in Caſes thought to be incurable, he now, for general Good, has made them publick: And that the meaner Sort of People might partake of the Benefit of ſo divine a Remedy as well as the Rich, he has put them up in Bottles of but 3 s 6 d each, tho' for the Excellency of their Effects they are worth their Weight in Gold, more eſpecially as one Bottle of them generally Cures, even in the moſt draining Gleets, and grievous Relaxations and Weakneſſes of the Seminals and Genitals, as alſo of the Back and Reins, that are.

Nor can there be prepared, by any Art or Skill, a more cleanſing and healing, or a more ſtrengthening and invigorating Medicine, or one that can more effectually cure Impotency, or promote Fertility, than this, as every one that but once tries it will ſay, by their ſoon finding the Difference between this and other Remedies; for it will do more in one Day towards reſtoring in theſe Weakneſſes than any others can in ten, and is of ſo corroborating a Nature that it may be entirely rely'd upon for curing perfectly and firmly, without Fear of Relapſe, even in the tendereſt Conſtitutions, which can hardly be ſaid of any other Medicine; and it is withal ſo elegantly pleaſant to the Palate, and ſo agreeable to the Stomach that the niceſt Perſon is delighted with it.

Mr Weſt, Goldſmith, who us'd to ſell theſe Drops being dead, they are now Sold only by his Son-in Law, Mr Johnſon, a Baker, at the Seven Stars, in Vere-ſtreet, near Clare-Market, ſealed up, with Directions, for any Meſſenger upon asking only for a Bottle of Drops, and paying 3 s 6 d.

For the Immediate Cure of BARRENNESS in WOMEN tho' of many Years Continuance, and proceeding from what Cause soever,

And also of IMPOTENCY in MEN, however occasion'd, or of ever so long Standing,

The Famous and Infallible PROLIFICK ELIXIR.

The highest, richest and most powerful Cordial in Nature, is recommended,

BEING the only true and Infallible Cure for Barrenness in Women, and Impotency in Men in the Universe, and which at once accomplishes without the least Trouble, even after all other Remedies have fail'd, as Thousands have Experienced, and that by promoting the chearful Circle of the Blood and Juices, raising all the Fluids from their languid deprelled State, to one more florid and sparkling; opening all Obstructions, fortifying the Nerves, encreasing the Animal Spirits, restoring a Juvenile Bloom, and evidently replenishing the collapsed Fibres of the whole Habit, with a generous Warmth and balmy Moisture, and thereby invigorating it to such a Degree as not to be imagin'd, but by those who have experienced how exceedingly and suddenly it renovates, recruits and powerfully strengthens all the Animal Faculties, and Generative Powers in both Sexes. It enforces a bright lively Disposition banishes Melancholy, and inspires Mirth and Gladness of Heart beyond Expression.

Abundance of Ladies, who for several Years were deem'd incurable Patten, have after twice taking it, conceived and became Fruitful, and great Numbers of Gentlemen, who by full living or otherwise, had render'd themselves incapable of Procreation, have soon been enabled by it to propagate their Species, insomuch, that very many illustrious Families, who, for want of Children, were almost inconsolable, are now blest with happy Issue, and are (under Providence) indebted to this Great Medicine for their Heirs.

It refishes all Disorders of the Stomach, creates an Appetite, procures a good Digestion, and in all Weaknels of Body, or Decay of Constitution of any Kind, is a most infallible Restorative, and even seems to keep back the Effects of Old Age itself.

It is to be taken but a few Drops at a Time, has a very fine Flavour, is pleasant to the Palate Cordial to the Stomach, and can be had only at the Two Blue Posts in Haydon Yard in the Minories at 5 s. a Bottle, with Directions.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses whether occasion'd by too severe purging for Venereal Impurities, violent Strains, Falls, or any other Cause whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain since they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infect the whole Nervous System, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorsalis, or Consumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Consumption which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such therefore who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old stubborn Gleets, Seminal Effusions, Involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetis, Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe and speedy Cure, which they most assuredly may, by the taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent Ballamick Restrictive Electuary, now published for a general Good, after having for many Years in private Practice been experienced never once to fail perfectly curing the most stubborn Gleets known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as also all other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels and Urinary Passages, which it almost instantly cures, bringing to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to their natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent Ballamick Restrictive Electuary is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is a wonderful Restorative in all Weaknesses and Decay of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly strengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels, to and in a like Degree, insomuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Persons fatigued with Gleets or Seminal Weaknesses of any Sort, or Weaknesses of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it so very effectual, that they will be most agreeably surprised at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a safe, speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been try'd in vain; too much cannot be said in Praise of it, and they all who ever took it for any of the above-mentioned Complaints, have readily believed it.

The Price is but 6 s. a Vial, altho' for its absolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten time, as much, and to the Author's special Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, which whosoever carefully reads will be complete Master of his own Case, and perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with succeeds a Venereal Impury, whether all the Malignity of the foul Disease is entirely extirpated or not.

Note, Ask only for a 6 s. Pot of Ballamick Electuary.

To all Gentlemen, Builders, and Others.

ANTI-SIPHYLICON

THE only short and most infallible CURE in the Universe for the Venereal Disease from the sligh'est Infection to the most extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks, on one Hand, or a seminal Gleet, or Weakness, to happen on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Illness, attended with nocturnal Pains, universal Breakings-out, and all other the most exasperated Symptoms, are soon overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Inunctions, or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as loudly to bespeak it the only opposite Remedy, or true Venereal Antidote in the World, and this some Thousands have, to their great Joy, experienced.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Disorder, nor requires Confinement, but may be taken, and the Cure be accomplished, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury may, by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it, Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

All such, likewise, as doubt they have some remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may, by a few Doses of it, entirely free themselves from all Suspicions of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and, on that Account, in all Scorbutick, Scrophulous, and even Leprous Eruptions, or Foulnesses of the Skin, or glandulous Swellings, and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose than any other Medicine, yet known, can by ten.

The Price of this most noble Anti-Siphylicon is but six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient, in most Cases, to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown, against St. Clement's Church-yard, in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, by the Perusal of which all Persons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease may perfectly understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is entirely rooted out of their Bodies. Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy.

The only True Specifick TINCTURE

For the TOOTH-ACH, and all Disorders and Defects of the TEETH and GUMS whatever, which has given such intire Satisfaction to the Nobility and Gentry for above these Twenty Years past, by its vastly excelling all other Things, either formerly invented or lately contrived for these Purposes;

SINCE one Drop of it gives infallible and instant Ease in the most tormenting Pain, when nothing else will, and not only takes it away in a Moment, but absolutely cures the TOOTH-ACH, so as certainly to prevent its Return.

At only once using, it makes the foulest Teeth most beautifully white, assuredly fastens those that are loose, and infallibly preserves the Teeth from growing rotten, and those a little decayed, from becoming worse: It perfectly cures the Scurvy in the Gums, causing them to grow up to the Teeth again to Admiration, and also occasions a sweet Breath.

It is neither disagreeable to the Smell or Taste, but effectually preserves the Teeth and Gums from all manner of Foulness, Corruption and Putrefaction, keeps them sound, good, and in most beautiful Order, and may be depended upon to answer the Character here given of it, literally, and in every Respect, as Persons innumerable have experienced.

But these inimitable Qualities, and solely inherent Virtues by which it has justly gained such an universal and unparallell'd great Character, have occasion'd, as usual in such Cases, various and frequent Endeavours to mimick it, some under the same Name, and in the very Words of this Advertisement, and others under other Names; be careful, therefore, to have the right, which may be infallibly relied upon, and which is to be had only by the Author's Appointment, of the Gentlewoman at the Two Blue Posts in Haydon Yard in the Minories, London, at 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

Good Allowance to those who take Quantities for Exportation.

The most Noble ELIXIR

For Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Histerick Disease, or Vapors in Women,

IN three Days Time, demonstrates to every one who takes it, that it is absolutely infallible for the thorough Cure of those perplexing Indispositions, even in their highest and most grievous Degree, where nothing but Horror reigns, where Reasoning is interrupted or depraved, and where the Mind is confused with terrible Perturbations, Anxieties, and Despondency even to Distraction, and the Body afflicted with almost innumerable Ailments.

It's surprizing to see how soon this CELEBRATED ELIXIR (even a few Doses of it only) entirely cures all the vast Variety of Symptoms, and induces a new train of chearful and pleasant Ideas, instead of those deep and black thoughts, those direful Apprehensions that so tenaciously dwelt upon the Soul, clouded the Understanding, and destroyed all notion of ever receiving Comfort again; for it occasions a flow of undisturbed Spirits, and causes bright gleams of Joy to break in upon the Heart, and chase away the whole load of depressed and melancholy Imaginations so effectually, that the Patients are suddenly reliev'd both in Body and Mind, and now enjoying perfect Health, free and lively Spirits steady, serene and gay Thoughts, stand as much amazed that they could be chain'd down to such a dismal way of Thinking, such dreadful Fears, and dark Incumbrances, as before, they were hopeless of ever getting free from them.

In a Word, the Effect of this most Noble Elixir, in so suddenly and infallibly curing Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Histerick Disease, or Vapours in Women, in all their Shapes and Appearances, even after all other Remedies have proved fruitless, is inexpressible, as the vast Numbers of both Sexes who have been perfectly cured by it, with the utmost Satisfaction declare.

It occasions no manner of Disorder, is pleasant to take, a few Drops of it are a Dose, and is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church Yard in the Strand, at 5 s. a Bottle, with Directions.

The only short and infallible Cure for that reigning Disease the SCURVY, and all Scorbutick Humours, tho' arrived to the highest or most inveterate Degree, or of ever so many Years standing, and that without any inefible Evacuation, or the least Purging, which, by an unaccountable Mistake, is generally advised, altho' always found rather to encrease and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS.

WHICH, without the least Trouble, Confinement, or any Disorder whatever, dost once strike at the true Cause of the Scurvy and entirely destroy it, and all Scorbutick Humors and Effects, Root and Branch, so as never to return again, as many Thousands of both Sexes have experienced, and as all who take them, in Three Days Time are convinced; for they almost instantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, sweeten all the Fluids, cleanse them from Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Blotches, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions or Breakings out, Weakness of the Limbs, languid Heaviness of the whole Body, wandering Pains, Weakness of the Back, and all the vast Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies conceal'd under the Appearance of the Rheumatism, and many other Distempers.

And for strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passages, (whence proceed Head-Achs, Vapours, and other Indispositions) no Bitters, nor any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, insomuch that besides infallibly curing the Scurvy, in all its Shapes and Appearance, they effectually and directly cure the Green-Sickness in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds, in Young or Old, and almost all other Chronick Diseases, which are chiefly occasioned by Indigestion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Illnesses.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Restorative, strengthen and enen the whole Machine, and as soon as taken, make the Patient pleasantly lightsome, brisk and vigorous to Admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Persons, to preserve as well as to procure a found and healthful State of Body.

But the great Reputation these so much fam'd and most pleasant Chymical DROPS have so universally gain'd among Persons of Eminence, for their suddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humors, and other Chronick Diseases, in such an easy and agreeable Manner, have occasioned many to imitate them, some under the same, and others under other Names; be careful therefore not to be deceived, but be sure to have the Right, which, by the Author's special Appointment, are to be had, only at the Gentlewoman's at the two blue Posts in Haydon Yard in the Minories, at 3 s. 6 d a Bottle, with Directions.
